After School Care

Are you working or a student who is a parent or carer in need of quality childcare?

Our After School Care facilities are based over two sites, one at Miles Platting and Ancoats Children's Centre, Holland Street and the other at St. George's Community Centre, Livesey Street.

We pick children up from five schools within the local area: St. Anne's RC Primary School, Parkview Community School, St Brigid's RC Primary School, Abbott Community School and St Patrick's RC Primary School.

Our After School Care starts at the end of the school day and finishes at 5.45pm.

For the cost of this service please ring the number below.

A variety of activities are on offer, including:

- free play
- team games and sport
- arts and crafts activities
- computer games
- local trips and lots more.

Children will be offered a healthy snack and drinks are available throughout the session.

For more information or to book a place please call 0161 205 7402.

Holiday Care Scheme

Our Holiday Care Scheme is open to children aged 3–13 years during the school holidays. This is an ideal setting for children to spend holiday periods alongside other children in a relaxed and fun environment with experienced staff.

We open for ten weeks of the year, Monday to Friday from 8.45am until 5.30pm.

For the cost of this service please ring the number below. A discount is available for more than one child.

Toast is provided in the morning, a healthy snack in the afternoon with drinks available throughout the day. However, parents must provide their child/children with a packed lunch.

Children will be encouraged to make independent choices through play.

Activities include:

- seasonal and multi-cultural activities
- cookery
- arts and crafts activities
- local trips and lots more.

For more information please call 0161 205 7402.

Help with childcare costs may be available through Tax Credits. For further information please contact the Tax Credits helpline direct on 0845 300 3900.

Parktastic
