Family Action's Perinatal Support Service is an early intervention, low intensity intervention for those with low level (mild to moderate) diagnosed mental health issues or who are at risk of developing mental health issues in the perinatal period. We support parents and carers in their homes and in community settings offering one to one support and group work during the pregnancy to two years after the birth after depending on need.

We require highly motivated, enthusiastic and innovative individuals to take on a variety of roles to support with the implementation and delivery of the service.

The support worker will be required to travel frequently across the Royal Borough of Greenwich

We are forward looking, ambitious and with a commitment to continuous improvement. We are a people focused, can-do organisation, which strives for excellence in all we do and operate with mutual respect. If you share these values and behaviours and have the necessary skills then we look forward to hearing from you.
