

Sessional Relationship Support Workers
Separated Parents Information Programme
South Yorkshire
Sessional hours (as and when required)
£13.26 per hour (Some weekend and evening work will be required)

The Separated Parents Information Programme (SPIPS) Service delivers 4 hour programmes to parents in the community who are co-parenting in the context of separation or divorce. Family Action currently delivers programmes in Manchester, South Yorkshire and we are looking to recruit experienced facilitators in Greater Manchester and South Yorkshire.

Candidates ideally will have a relevant training qualification or be working towards a relevant train the trainer, PTTLS (Preparing to Teach in Lifelong Learning Sector) or equivalent teaching qualification. They will also have experience and skills in working with families in a group setting and providing advice and support on parenting issues. Sound knowledge and practical experience of managing safeguarding issues is an essential requirement of this post.

The ability to be flexible is essential. Candidates must also have access to a road worthy vehicle due to delivery being in several different areas.

We are forward looking, ambitious and with a commitment to continuous improvement. We are a people focused, can-do organisation that strives for excellence in all we do and operates with mutual respect. If you share these values and behaviours and have the necessary skills then we look forward to hearing from you.

Appointments are subject to Family Action receiving an enhanced disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service that we consider acceptable.
