

Behaviour Outreach Support Worker, Behaviour Outreach Support Service, Lincolnshire
37 hours per week
Grade 2 (upper): £23,298 - £25,661 per annum
Permanent Contract

Are you an innovative, strong, education professional, who is solution focused and passionate about making a difference in everything you do? Do you have an excellent track record of managing challenging behaviour and supporting social and emotional learning? As a BOSS Outreach Support Worker you will act as a contact point for schools providing advice and guidance about the social and emotional needs of students and pupils. You will work as part of a team to ensure BOSS provides a responsive, consistent service across Lincolnshire. You will need excellent assessment, recording and report writing skills. You will need excellent time management and communication skills.

We want to recruit an experienced caseworker for our Lincoln Office and can offer the right individuals the opportunity to join a values based organisation that has the needs of children and families at its core.

Our Values: People Focus, Mutual Respect, Excellence in all we do and a Can Do attitude.

If you can relate to these and have the necessary skills and attitude we can offer you:

- The chance to become part of a truly excellent service to the Grenfell community.
- A competitive salary, leave entitlement and pension scheme.
- Career development opportunities.
- A full induction and on-going quality training.
- The opportunity to become part of national Family Action initiatives.
- Managed workloads and regular supportive and reflective supervision.
