

Sessional Child Contact Intervention Worker, Relationship Support Services, Southend
£10 per hour (sessions generally 2.5 hours)
Sessional hours (including Saturdays and occasional weekdays)

Our child contact intervention centre is a safe, friendly and neutral setting where children of separated families can spend time with one or both parents and sometimes other family members or significant adults. It is a child centred environment that provide toys, games and facilities that reflect the diverse needs of children affected by family breakdown.

You will support the delivery of safe and effective child contact interventions including, but not confined to, supported, supervised, sustained, handover and indirect contact.

You will hold an appropriate social care, early years, parenting support qualification and /or be able to evidence the equivalent through experience of working with children/families.

You will have the ability to work with families in conflict and understanding of the importance of remaining focused on the needs of the child/children.

Our Values: People focus, Mutual Respect, Excellence-in-all-we do and a Can-Do attitude. If you can relate to these and have the necessary skills and attitude, we can offer you:

- A competitive salary, leave entitlement and pension scheme
- Career development opportunities
- A full induction and ongoing quality training
- The opportunity to become part of Family Action initiatives
- Flexible working hours
- Managed workloads with regular supportive and reflective supervision

We can offer you support, training and development, and an organisation committed to working in a holistic and preventative way with families and to enabling staff creativity. We welcome applications from all sections of the community.
