

Co-Parenting Apps

Please note: This list has been compiled as a result of parents attending the SPIP and saying they found these apps helpful. Core Assets Children's Services do not in any way recommend any particular app, we recommend you do your own research before purchasing any App.

AppClose - www.appclose.com

AppClose[®]

With free, easy to download conversations & other info, App Close is a free full function parenting app. It has secure messaging, shared calendar functions, an expense manager and shared information bank. App Close also allows parents to go solo meaning one parent can sign up and use App Close even if his/her co parent does not do so. App Close has 24/7 customer support and can be used by both lawyers and their clients, enabling parents to share information with their legal team. App Close is available on Android, and iOS.

Our Family Wizard - www.ourfamilywizard.co.uk

Costs £99 per person/year. Extras are available such as Tone Meter which works a little like a spellchecker spellchecker, picking up on negative tones in a message and giving you an alternative that's less likely to start an argument, this is £10/year.

our family wizard

2Houses - www.2houses.com/en

Cost approx. £100/year per family though a 2 week free trial is available. 2Houses makes it easy to organize a custody schedule, manage kids' expenses, upload photos and notes, and exchange all necessary information, such as medical notes and school details. It also comes with a messaging service and mediator access via the web and mobile devices.

Talking Parents - www.talkingparents.com

Talking Parents is a different type of online communication tool for co-parents. It's designed to create a system-of-record for all of your communications, in the event that either you or your ex need to supply proof of correspondence to the courts. The Web platform is free, but additional costs to received PDF's of conversations.

A premium version available for iPhone or Android costs $5.99/month.
