

Senior Family Support Worker, HMP Styal Mother and Baby Unit, Wilmslow

35 hours per week

Grade 3 (lower) Point 20-23: £26,949 - £29,573 FTE (£25,492.30 - £27,974.45 per annum)

Permanent contract

We are recruiting a Senior Family Support Worker to support the delivery of our HMP Styal Mother and Baby Unit service. The successful post holder will have experience or leading and developing Teams, delivering high quality Family Support Interventions, knowledge and understanding of physical and emotional wellbeing needs of women during and after pregnancy and an understanding of the developmental needs of children, the challenges of parenting and the impact of disadvantage on families and individuals. You will have a strong track record in understanding and implementing Safeguarding Policy and Procedure.

This is an exciting opportunity to support mothers and babies to achieve their full potential in difficult circumstances. Successful applicants will work closely with the staff on the Mother and Baby unit, including our nursery team, and with prison personnel to ensure a high quality, joined up service to pregnant women within the wider prison setting and to the mothers and babies resident on the Unit.

The role is subject to enhanced DBS and HMP vetting procedures.

Our Values:
