Children and Families Domestic Abuse Worker, Survive and Thrive

Based in Bradford, West Yorkshire

29.6 hours per week (part-time)

Grade 2 (lower) point 11-15: £20,375 - £23,038 FTE (£16,300 - £18,430.40 per annum)

Fixed term contract: 6 months

Bradford Survive and Thrive is an exciting and innovative new multi-agency partnership bringing together 3 organisations, Family Action, Staying Put and Women's Centre Limited who are working together to develop a 'one system approach' to families affected by domestic abuse and sexual violence.

This role is to work with children and families who have experienced domestic abuse / sexual violence to help reduce their trauma symptoms and rebuild fractured relationships.

Your impact

You will work with the children and families to assess their needs and devise a child focused support plan. You will help the parents understand the impact of domestic abuse on their children and enable them to better support their children. You will ensure the families are linked in with relevant local universal and targeted provision.

Your skills

If you have experience of working with children and families who have experienced domestic abuse, understand the impact of trauma on children and families and can undertake assessments and work in partnership with other local agencies to build support plans, we would like to hear from you.

We are committed to Equality, Diversity & Inclusion in all that we do and welcome applications from all sections of the community. We particularly welcome applications from Black, Asian and minority ethnic candidates, LGBTQIA+ candidates and candidates with disabilities because we are committed to increasing the representation of these groups at Family Action. We know that greater diversity will lead to even greater results for families and children and strive for our workforce to be truly representative of the diverse communities we support. We offer a guaranteed interview scheme for disabled applicants and will reimburse your travel cost if you attend an interview.

What will we offer you?

We'll offer you flexible working hours, a generous pension scheme and leave entitlements, eye care vouchers, a cycle to work scheme and other great benefits. We have an excellent wellbeing offer and we will invest in your professional development with on-going quality training and career development opportunities. You'll join an established, supportive and high-performing service and have the opportunity to thrive in an innovative organisation that values your opinion, encourages learning and has the needs of children and families at its core.

We are forward looking, ambitious and committed to continuous improvement. We are a people focused, can-do organisation, which strives for excellence in all we do and operates with mutual
