

Thank you for contacting Wiltshire SENDIAS Service (Wiltshire Special Educational Needs and Disability Information & Advice Support Service).

For the purposes of the data processing described in this statement and compliance with the Data Protection Act (2018), the Family Action operate as Controllers of the data.

Commitment

Family Action is committed to making sure that any information we hold about you will be collected, stored and used in accordance with The Data Protection Act 2018 and General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (GDPR).

This means that we adhere to the data protection principles of only holding information about you that is relevant to our work with you, that we make sure the information that we hold is accurate, up to date, secure, and only kept for as long as we need it.

To keep things simple, we have arranged a single point of contact for all data protection issues. Should you have any questions relating to this notice or our processing of personal data, please email data.protection@family-action.org.uk or contact us at the address at the bottom of this form.

Where do we collect your information?

We may collect information about you at a number of stages in your use of our services.

Registration/Initial Enquiry

When a child, young person and/or their parent/carer makes an initial enquiry to our SENDIAS service, we will ask (usually via telephone, Teams conversation, return email or initial enquiry form via our website) the person making contact with our service for the first time to give their permission for us to access their SEND files and speak with professionals who may need to be involved in their case. Permission can be given either verbally over the telephone, Teams or written via email or on an initial enquiry form. This initial permission will be recorded by one of our service team at registration/initial enquiry on our staff internal recording system, Inform.

During your engagement with us

Throughout yours/your child's engagement with us, our service team will record information about the service provided to you, including case reporting, plans and reviews.

This will help us to fully understand your needs and promote yours/your child's health and wellbeing.

Substantial public interest condition set out in DPA 2018 – Condition 18. Safeguarding of children and individuals at risk.

For Safeguarding and Where Legally Obligated to Do So

All staff at Wiltshire SENDIASS have a duty of care to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people. We have a duty to report any child protection or welfare concerns. In certain, limited conditions we may use or disclose your personal information in order to comply with a legal obligation, in connection with a request from a public or government authority, in connection with court proceedings or to prevent loss of life or injury. Where possible and practicable to do so, we will tell you in advance of such disclosure unless a child or young person is identified as being at significant risk of immediate harm.

Sharing & Disclosure

Your information will only be accessed by people who need to do so as part of their role. This could include:

Within Family Action:

- Staff working at the service that you use;
- Senior managers, as required.

Outside of the Service:

- Relevant staff working for Wiltshire Integrated Care Board or LA on whose behalf we may be independently running the service you have accessed; for instance, to progress a case in the best interests of the child/young person. This may include, but not be limited to, professionals in education, health and social care, such as SENDCOs, educational psychologists, family workers, provision leads, school nurse, CAMHS and other health and social care professionals and managers.
- Wider professionals, such as relevant staff at independent nurseries, special schools and colleges.
- Chair and Vice Chair of the Steering Group, where appropriate, as part of the minimum standards of the SENDIAS service and the wider accountability framework.
- Sensitive personal data will not be shared with anyone outside of Family Action without good reason.

Rights

The GDPR legislation provides you with a number of rights in relation to your personal data.

Right to Withdraw Consent

- Where you have consented to our processing of your data, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. To do so, please contact data.protection@family-action.org.uk or write to us using the details below.

Right to Access

You have a right to obtain copies of the information that we hold about you.

To request access to any data, please email data.protection@family-action.org.uk or write to us at the address below explaining which data you require. In the interest of security, you will need to prove your identity before any information can be shared with you.

Under certain circumstances we may not be able to disclose all of the information you request, for example if it contains information about other people or there are legal reasons for us to withhold the data.

Right to Rectification

We would like to ensure that the data we hold about you is accurate and up-to-date. If you believe the data we hold is inaccurate, please tell one of our service staff who will make any necessary amendments. However, you may also ask us formally to correct your data by emailing data.protection@family-action.org.uk or writing to us at the below address.

Right to Erasure or the Restriction of Processing

In certain circumstances you can ask us to remove your data from our systems by emailing data.protection@family-action.org.uk or writing to us at the below address. If there is a legal reason for us to continue holding the data we will let you know; otherwise, we will make efforts to comply with your request. You may ask us to restrict our processing of your data if:

- We are using the data for marketing
- You believe that our processing of the data is unlawful
- You object to us using your data (pending investigation)

In these circumstances, we may continue to store your information, but will otherwise only process it with your consent or where we have a legal reason to do so.

Right to Complain

If you are concerned about the way we have processed your personal information, you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioners Officer (ICO). To do so please refer to the ICO website <http://ico.org.uk>.
