

MENTAL HEALTH TOP TIPS FOR YOUNG CARERS

SCAN ME

Being a Young Carer, you may feel alone, overwhelmed or anxious about your cared for and/or your circumstances. Sometimes it can be hard to know where to go, or who to turn to. You will find contact details below for organisations that can support you

1

REGULAR EXERCISE

Exercise can help lower stress levels and improve your self-esteem!

2

TAKE TIME FOR YOURSELF

Give yourself a break and do something that makes you happy!

3

SLEEP

It is important you get enough sleep each night so you are not tired the next day. To help, you could have a bath or read a book

4

BE KIND TO YOURSELF

Remember you are doing an amazing job looking after your cared-for

5

MINDFULNESS

This is a great way to help you focus when feeling overwhelmed or anxious. You could try yoga, meditation and breathing exercises

6

EATING HEALTHY

Eating a healthy, well balanced diet is vital for your mental and physical wellbeing
