

Sessional Support Worker, Families Together

Based in Sandwell

Hours: sessional arrangement

Hourly rate: £12.85 - £14.15

At Family Action we transform lives by providing practical, emotional, and financial support to those who are experiencing poverty, disadvantage and social isolation. We have been building stronger families since 1869 and today we work with more than 60,000 families in over 150 community-based services, as well as supporting thousands more through national programmes and grants.

This is an exciting opportunity to support the coordination of our Families Together Service. The service works to foster healthy relationships and provide early intervention and prevention around domestic abuse. There is no guarantee on the number of hours on offer but the support worker can typically work 4-8 hours a week.

The support worker will:

- Be expected to confidently deliver Domestic Abuse Preventative Programmes used within the service.
- Demonstrate an understanding of Early Help Support and Domestic Abuse
- Evaluate the effectiveness of their work
- Offer one to one support to families affected by Domestic Abuse.
- Ability to drive and have the use of own car.

What will we offer you?

We'll offer you flexible working hours, a generous pension scheme and leave entitlements, eye care vouchers, a cycle to work scheme and other great benefits. We have an excellent wellbeing offer and we will invest in your professional development with on-going quality training and career development opportunities. You'll join an established, supportive and high-performing service and have the opportunity to thrive in an innovative organisation that values your opinion, encourages learning and has the needs of children and families at its core.

You'll join an established, supportive and high-performing service and have the opportunity to thrive in an innovative organisation that values your opinion, encourages learning and has the needs of children and families at its core. We are forward looking, ambitious and committed to continuous improvement. We are a people focused, can-do organisation, which strives for excellence in all we do and operates with mutual respect.

We are committed to Equality, Diversity & Inclusion in all that we do and welcome applications from all sections of the community. We particularly welcome applications from Black, Asian and minority ethnic candidates, LGBTQIA+ candidates and candidates with disabilities because we are committed to increasing the representation of these groups at Family Action. We know that greater diversity will lead to even greater results for families and children and strive for our workforce to be truly representative of the diverse communities we support. We offer a guaranteed interview scheme for disabled applicants and will reimburse your travel cost if you attend an interview.
