At Family Action we transform lives by providing practical, emotional and financial support to those who are experiencing poverty, disadvantage and social isolation. We have been building stronger families since 1869 and today we work with more than 60,000 families in over 150 community-based services, as well as supporting thousands more through national programmes and grants.

Job Summary

Family Action are looking for a Group Facilitator to join our team. Our services include a telephone helpline, counselling, advocacy, outreach and a co-produced, relational activism project.

This is an exciting opportunity, for an experienced facilitator, to work on group-based provision for adult survivors of domestic abuse. You will be responsible for co-designing course materials for both remote and in-person groups and for training a small group of volunteers to support you in your role.

You will lead the promotion, delivery and evaluation of psycho-educational pre-therapy groups and post-therapy drop in groups and coproduce a steering group for lived experiences for adult survivors of domestic abuse in and around the Gloucestershire area who have access to safe accommodation.

There will be 3 hours per month of paid clinical supervision plus line management supervision with the Communities co-ordinator.

Family Action welcomes applications from all sections of the community. We are committed to Equality, Diversity & Inclusion in all that we do and know that greater diversity will lead to even greater results for families and children.

What will we offer you?

We will offer you flexible working hours, a generous pension scheme and leave entitlements, eye care vouchers, a cycle to work scheme and other great benefits. We have an excellent wellbeing offer and will invest in your professional development with on-going quality training and career development opportunities. You will join an established, supportive and high-performing service and have the opportunity to thrive in an innovative, non-hierarchical organisation that values your opinion, encourages learning and has the needs of children and families at its core.

Our commitment to Equality, Diversity & Inclusion:

We are committed to Equality, Diversity & Inclusion in all that we do and welcome applications from all sections of the community / particularly welcome applications from Black, Asian and minority ethnic candidates, LGBTQ+ candidates and candidates with disabilities because we are committed to increasing the representation of these groups at Family Action. We know that greater diversity will lead to even greater results for families and children and strive for our workforce to be truly representative of the diverse communities we support. We offer a guaranteed interview scheme for disabled applicants and will reimburse any reasonable travel costs associated with attending an interview.
